Tony,

Sorry for the continuing emails. This one is pretty important, though...

I wondered if DPS might be able to reconsider our request about the Tarrant County seniors event this Friday. (Although it seems like days ago, you and I spoke about this earlier today and I had sent you an email about it Monday afternoon – attached.) I realize that it may stretch units and perhaps staffing, but we believe that it is important to attempt to attend this event. We just received word that 5 EIC's were issued today in Tarrant County. This definitely means a need exists. If there is something that we could do to make this happen, please let me know.

Friday, October 4 (8:30 AM to 1:30 PM)

Thanks again for a great day today – again I apologize for overloading you with emails at the 5:00 hour. Talk to you tomorrow morning.

Best,
Wroe
